

Rev. Kelly Beckley, Governing Board Member

Kelly Beckley is the Executive Pastor of Canton First United Methodist Church. Kelly earned her undergraduate degree in interior design and worked in the commercial and residential design business until 2005 when she received the call to full-time vocational ministry. She received a Master of Divinity from Candler at Emory University and was appointed to Creekside United Methodist Church in 2013 (she was on staff there beginning in 2005). In her spare time, Kelly enjoys camping, traveling, mission work, cooking, tennis, cheering on the University of Georgia Bulldogs, and anything that involves the beach.
